Tradition you can taste. Innovation that inspires.

Our leadership team: Senta Kühlmann, Hendrik Kühlmann and Antonius Borgmeier

Dear Customers,

Freshness, quality, true craftsmanship and a genuine commitment to responsibility — these values have been at the heart of our family business for generations. In our time-honored Kühlmann production facility, fine salads, choice antipasti and a wide range of gourmet specialties are produced with meticulous attention to detail. Our dedicated team brings enthusiasm and exacting standards to everything we do, every single day.

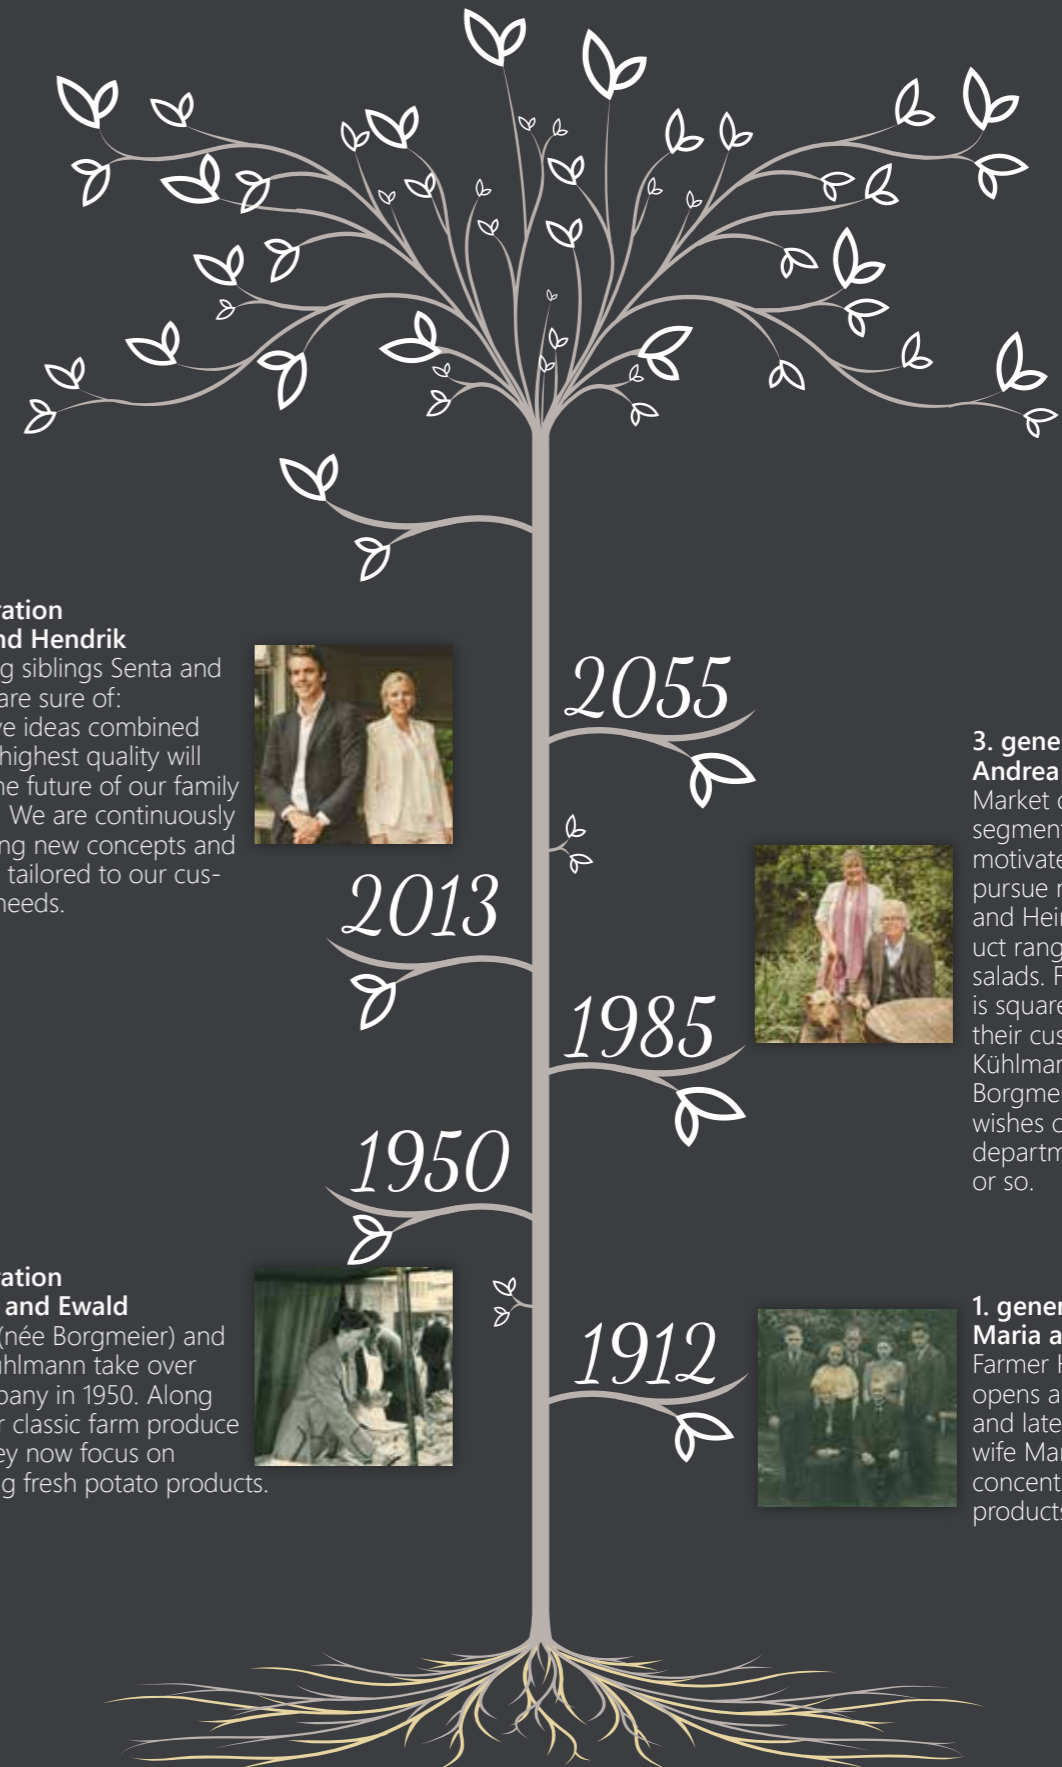

We source only the finest ingredients — never any artificial additives or preservatives. Ever. The result? Real gourmet foods with real flavor.

How do we create handcrafted gourmet products that are in a class of their own? Our philosophy is simple: uncompromising quality and exceptional taste. In our new gourmet catalog, you'll discover timeless favorites alongside fresh creations that add variety and make every bite an occasion. And here's a highlight you won't want to miss: Our new cream cheese balls are rolling in for their debut — bite-sized and round, just bursting with flavor.

We hope you enjoy exploring and serving our products.

The Kühlmann family and the entire Kühlmann team

A company with a story to tell.

4. generation
Senta and Hendrik

One thing siblings Senta and Hendrik are sure of: Innovative ideas combined with the highest quality will ensure the future of our family business. We are continuously developing new concepts and solutions tailored to our customers' needs.

2055

3. generation
Andrea and Heinrich

Market developments in the segment of fresh potato products motivate the young couple to pursue new approaches. Andrea and Heinrich develop a new product range: high-quality, fresh deli salads. From the start, their focus is squarely on the market and what their customers want. Heinrich Kühlmann's cousin, Antonius Borgmeier, has been making these wishes come true in the production department for the last 30 years or so.

2. generation
Antonia and Ewald

Antonia (née Borgmeier) and Ewald Kühlmann take over the company in 1950. Along with their classic farm produce store, they now focus on producing fresh potato products.

1. generation
Maria and Heinrich

Farmer Heinrich Kühlmann opens a farm produce store and later starts a family with wife Maria. The couple concentrates on high-quality products from East Westphalia.

Over a century of fine foods.

	Ewald Kühlmann, son of Heinrich and Elisabeth, takes over his parents' business and marries Antonia Borgmeier, a bold and dynamic woman with a background in the food industry.		Elisabeth Borgmeier with her son Antonius Borgmeier, who is the current managing director of Production, Quality Assurance, Logistics and Purchasing.		Heinrich's wife Andrea Kühlmann joins the management board. Together, they develop new concepts for the foodservice and specialty retail trade, along with new gourmet delicatessen recipes.		To this day, the company continues to develop a wide range of innovative products and concepts: hummus, bulgur, kimchi, cream cheese balls, pinsa and much more.

Heinrich Kühlmann Senior opens an agricultural trading business on a farm in Rietberg-Westerwiehe in 1912. 	Ewald and Antonia Kühlmann become very successful in the production of French fries. The company continues to expand and acquires new customers in the form of specialized wholesalers throughout Germany. 	The production of delicatessen salads begins and is expanded over the years. New production facilities are built. 	Hendrik Kühlmann joins the management team, followed by his sister Senta Kühlmann in 2016. For the fourth Kühlmann generation, one thing is clear: innovation and quality are the key to securing the future of the family business.

Salmon cream cheese balls

Our Salmon cream cheese balls bring together rich, velvety cream cheese and select smoked salmon in one perfectly balanced bite. Their delicate texture, smooth mouthfeel and subtle salmon flavor make them a standout for modern foodservice concepts and upscale buffets.

Serve them on a crispy mini rösti with a lightly dressed wild herb salad — creamy, savory and fresh in perfect harmony. These cream cheese balls are ideal as finger food for receptions and events, or as an elegant appetizer for à la carte service. Their appealing shape and stability make for effortless and elegant plating, and they hold up beautifully, even during longer serving periods.

Bottom line

These cream cheese balls are versatile enough for classic cuisine and modern, creative food concepts alike. They offer chefs maximum flexibility with minimal prep time – for consistently high quality and an impressive presentation on every plate.

Curry cream cheese balls

Middle Eastern spiciness meets creamy freshness

Our Curry cream cheese balls combine the finest cream cheese with the warmth and spiciness of curry and the natural sweetness of carrots. The result? A perfectly balanced specialty that delivers on both flavor and presentation. The creamy texture and well-balanced touch of spiciness make this product a versatile companion in modern, creative cuisine.

Try these cream cheese balls as the star of a Middle Eastern-inspired bowl. Pairing them with our aromatic Couscous salad Tunis is a match made in flavor heaven: fluffy couscous, fine spices and fresh herbs meet the velvety smoothness of cream cheese balls — ideal for a light yet satisfying meal.

Serve them cold or gently warmed — either way, they keep their creamy texture and bring their full aroma to the plate.

Bottom line

The Curry cream cheese balls stand for creative moments of enjoyment, Middle Eastern inspiration and endless possibilities. On their own or alongside our couscous salad Tunis, they are the perfect choice for anyone who loves variety, quality and bold, modern taste.
